Art Unit: 1644

1. Claims 36, 38-40, 42 and 44-45 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. § 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 36, 38-40, 42 and 44-45 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 102(b) as being anticipated by Sunthornthepvarakul et al., (U) or Clifton-Bligh et al., (V), all of record for reasons set forth in the Paper mailed 4-28-2003.

Applicant's arguments filed 7-28-2003, have been fully considered but are not found persuasive.

Applicant argues that neither Sunthornthepvarakul et al., nor Clifton-Bligh et al., teach a stably transfected cDNA or mRNA molecule, and offer as evidence the fact that in both references the cells transfect with the DNA molecules were used quickly and only once. This is not evidence the cDNA molecules were not stably transfected. Applicant is reminded, that attorney's arguments are not evidence where evidence is required see MPEP 2145.

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for response to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the date of this action. In the event a first response is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event will the statutory period for response expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
